DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this

Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 21-24 and 39-40 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by da Costa Filho 5,154,741. da Costa shows an apparatus for recovering fluids from a well located in the floor of a body of water, said apparatus having a substantially vertical fluid separator 58 having a nominal vertical dimension larger than a nominal horizontal dimension and a multiphase fluid inlet located in its upper portion, said fluid separator located below the surface and entirely above the floor of said body of water; a rigid riser assembly extending substantially vertically from the top portion of said fluid separator to a location near the surface of said body of water (fig 1); a gas outlet located in the upper portion of said fluid separator and fluidly connected to said riser assembly; a liquid outlet located in the lower portion of said fluid separator; and a pump (hydraulic; fig. 2, claim 24) fluidly connected to said liquid outlet and located outside of said fluid separator; wherein said pump is capable of regulating the gas/liquid interface level in said fluid separator (fig. 2).

Art Unit: 3671

As concerns claim 22, da Costa shows the separator located at a depth of at least 1,500 feet below the surface of said body of water. License

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 25-33 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
4. Claims 34- 38 are allowed.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
